

Improving elderly's lives at home

A woman with short, wavy white hair is seated at a wooden dining table. She is wearing a light pink long-sleeved shirt with a subtle floral pattern. She is focused on her meal, using a silver fork to eat from a dark plate. The plate contains a mix of food, including what appears to be rice, vegetables, and a slice of cucumber. To her right, a large, elegant glass filled with a dark red liquid, likely wine, sits on the table. The background is dimly lit, showing a kitchen area with dark cabinets and a tiled backsplash. A small potted plant and a lit candle in a holder are visible on a surface behind her, adding to the intimate, evening atmosphere. The overall lighting is soft and warm, highlighting the woman's features and the textures of her clothing and the food.
